

NADA University equips dealers and their staffs to get results—with the right knowledge, coaching, and resources to develop skills and confidence. Four robust “centers of excellence”—Academy, Learning Hub, 20 Group, and Resource Toolbox—make NADA U every dealership’s source for profit-building tools and training.

For help with the EPA Paint Booth Rules and other legal compliance issues, go to www.NADAuniversity.com and sign in (or enroll if you’re not a NADA or ATD dealer member) for access to the following programs and resources:

“New ‘6H’ EPA Air Quality Regulations for Auto Body Shops,” presented as part of NADA U’s MarketINSIGHT complimentary mini-webinar series, features an EPA specialist. Sign in to NADA U and select “Resource Toolbox,” then “MarketINSIGHT” for the archive of this webinar, and an opportunity to earn a “certificate of participation.”

Complying with the HAPs Rule is an online course that provides EPA instruction on compliance with the rule aimed at reducing body shops’ Hazardous Air Pollutants. The HAPs course is one of four online compliance-related courses offered free of charge to NADA and ATD members! The other courses are “The Buck Stops Here,” “Dealership Safety and OSHA Compliance,” and “Red Flags: Stopping Identity Thieves Before They Strike.” Sign in to NADA U, select “Learning Hub,” then “Legal/Regulatory.” And make sure to browse workshops and archived webinars for more information you can use. Click to purchase in the NADA U Store.

Driven Management Guides covering many compliance issues are located in Resource Toolbox. Sign in to NADA U; select “Resource Toolbox,” then “Driven,” and then “Legal/Regulatory” to find A Dealer Guide to the Risk-Based Pricing Rule and A Dealer Guide to the FTC Privacy Rule and the Model Privacy Notice. Driven guides are complimentary for NADA and ATD members; others may purchase each guide for a nominal charge.

Compliance issues—including financial, service, F&I and franchise law—are covered in most weeks of Dealer Academy. Listen to what our Academy students have to say and then let us tell you how the program can meet your needs. Sign in to NADA U, and select “Academy” for an introduction to this “training camp for success.” While you’re there, fill out the form for more information about the Academy programs.

NADAPERks tools and tips often deal with compliance issues. Sign in to NADA U and select “Resource Toolbox” to find archived NADAPERks exclusively for NADA and ATD members.
